

RSSi receives SBA 8(a) Certification

Sterling, VA – November 1st, 2015 – Right Sized Solutions, Inc. (RSSi), a quality professional services company focused on secure mission systems support to the U.S. Federal Government. We stay focused by concentrating on services in two areas: Management Consulting for Integrated Business Operations Support and Secure IT Systems Development & Operations.

RSSi is pleased to announce that we have been approved as a participant into the SBA's 8(a) development program. This award provides RSSi customers a program which offers a full range of management and consulting services to improve a federal agency's performance, and their endeavors to meet their mission goals in a very streamlined and efficient manner.

Through this program we are able to offer our services as a prime contractor to our customers through 8(a) competitions or sole source procurements. We are also happy to support our customers and partners as an SDB and EDWOB certified team member.

“We are extremely proud to participate in this proven and effective program. We sincerely value our partnership with the SBA to offer additional IT and management consulting services to our current and future customers” said Sun Tok Barrass, President and CEO of Right Sized Solutions, Inc.
